Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds(ARP) Emergency Financial Aid Grant calculation policy

Rosedale Technical Colleges grant calculation below was developed in accordance with guidelines set forth by the Department of Education for the disbursement of emergency financial aid grants provided through the student portion of Higher Education Emergency Relief Act.

Rosedale Technical College identified students who were eligible for Title IV funds and were active students as of March 30th for this disbursement. Students were provided a grant application to request funding and indicate to the school the impact of the disruption of campus operations as a result of the Coronavirus pandemic. The institution also identified a student's EFC and dependency status based on their 2020-2021 FAFSA to be considered in the calculation formula. The factors listed below along with the corresponding dollar amount were used to calculate emergency financial aid relief grants to students. This funding calculation applies to grants beginning on March 1,2022.

Auto zero EFC	$300
Dependent Students based on 20/21 FAFSA		$150
Independent Students based on 20/21 FAFSA	$300
Student is responsible for cost of housing		$190
Student is responsible for cost of meals	$190
Student is responsible for costs of course materials and/or technology associated with online courses.		$190
Independent student responsible for childcare costs	$190
